

Will gravel material be removed from the building site in association or reliance upon the building permit? Yes _____ No _____

Gravel removal, in reliance upon the building permit is limited to the mount of material equal to the amount necessary to prepare the cellar or foundation hole.

If this amount is to exceed 500 cubic yards then a "Special Permit" is required from the Gravel Committee.

I have read and understand these conditions.

Name: _____ Date: _____