Depends on the Rehoboth School Committee (yet to be established).

Is there an existing space that can be used to house the central office and special ed personnel, or will new space have to be created? What is the cost of this change?

Yes, to be determined from multiple options.

Will voters be able to vote on the actual funding requested by the new k-8 district, or can the select board change the amount of funding prior to the vote as they do now with the current DRRSD?

We expect to use the "Pembroke Process" (see minutes) but ultimately town meeting votes and decides to accept or reject school assessment and their vote is final.
